What Is Jesus Doing?
“Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus . . .”
Philippians 2:5

About 20 years ago the initials WWJD suddenly hit the jewelry, hat and T- shirt industry and became the Christian slogan for every situation. “What Would Jesus Do?” People took their momentary decisions to a standard beyond themselves and reflected on the great Master, Jesus, and weighed their response to His character. It was a beautiful way to bring biblical values into modern times on a personal level.

Now, as we are hurdling rapidly into the 21st Century, we have to marvel and say, “What is Jesus Doing?” Especially in light of the global phenomena, can we see His over-arching hand at work? Those of us who are alive in this generation are seeing the divine convergence of advanced technologies, great apostasy (falling away), amazing revivals, fierce battles between good and evil, the proclamation of kingdom truth pitted against convincing seductions and deceptions, and a refining of the Church. Global powers are clashing, people groups are migrating, and many are confused about political correctness and God’s kingdom values. All the while Jesus is bringing forth a beautiful Bride out of every tongue, tribe and nation! That is “What Jesus is Doing”, and we need to Join Him! I am seeing it with my own eyes in Thailand, Germany, China, Mexico, and Italy – An awakening !

The Lord Jesus is bringing us into the end of the ages with a powerful climax. Missions and church planting is exploding under the hands of anointed and skilled laborers. We just need more. The Church is being shaken to return to its “first love and first works.” We now need the unity to work together, crash the gates of hell and watch the Holy Spirit set captives free. This is His active plan through His beloved Church.

Here in the USA, we live with easy access to jets, information and more affluence than most of the world. Let’s take this blessing and rise up for godliness. Yes, tough times ahead may seem ominous. But remember, the world has always been contrary to the kingdom of God and the Gospel has prevailed to this day. Consider the Greek and Roman Empires, the Middle Ages, the Revolutionary War, World Wars 1 and 2 and the many tyrants and evil powers that have tried to champion their day. Where are they now? They have fallen, but we can always say of Jesus, “He has risen, and His Church is still rising.”

Strengthen yourself in prayer, fasting, and the Word. Worship God in the assembly of His people. Say “Yes, Lord” to his grace to empower you. Now jump in and take a leap of faith. In a dark time, your light will make a difference!

We at World Outreach Center are here to help you be a part of “What Jesus is Doing.” The rewards are heavenly!

Blessings and love,
John

Dear World Outreach Family and Friends:

It is a joy to know that together we are working to advance the kingdom of God in our generation. Thank you for your support and prayers - for the work is great. Let’s endeavor to keep the unity of the Spirit and keep going!

With this in mind, World Outreach Center is hosting a conference to encourage our many partners with their involvement in taking the gospel to the nations:

“Strengthening the Church, Reaching the Nations:
The Torch of Revival”

Please mark the weekend of November 4-6, 2016 on your calendars and plan to be with us.

Our hope is to equip the local church while connecting you with the many exciting opportunities around the world. You are invited. Bring a missions-hearted friend!

“The prospects are as bright as the promises of God.” – A. Judson.

You will get to hear from some of our missionary world changers as well as participate in some special sessions tailored to help you shine in your sphere of life. Jesus, the Savior of the world, came because every life counts to him. Let’s mature in our love for Him and others, so we can make our lives count for someone else. We hope to see you in November.

“This generation can only reach this generation.” – David Livingstone

Much love and grace,

The World Outreach Center Team ➔
