Jed & Maricel Beaumia

JANUARY 2017

New Season

Greetings from the Philippines! Blessed be our God and Father and our Lord, Jesus Christ. His divine power has granted us all things pertaining to life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him who called us to His own glory and excellence, by which He has granted to us His precious and very great promises... (2 Pet 1:3-4)

These promises are what we're holding onto. The more Maricel and I have pressed in to know His Word, He has been revealing His precious and very great promises to us.

To the left: Our pigs are very healthy, in about one/two months we can sell them

To the right: Our hen warming her eggs

Both are steps towards the future!

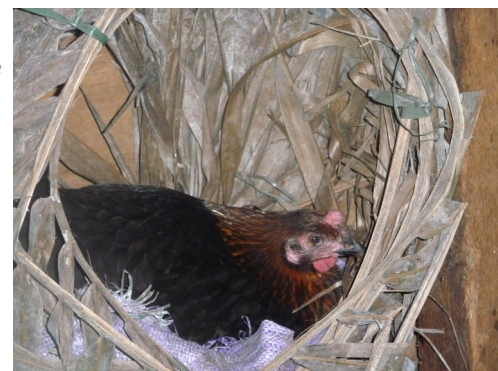

One year ago, God had told me to "believe for land". It seemed strange at the time, as we were in our fourth month feeding the Badjao. But as time passed, His desire became our desire, His promises have become so real to us, it is only a matter of time and patience before they come to pass.

The vision:

1. To have a sustainable, organic farm
2. To be strategically located so we can be effective in spreading the gospel to the tribal communities
3. To be a big blessing to the kingdom as we serve God and the people around us

Before I continue, I just want to say that anybody who knows me, knows that farming probably wouldn't have been the first occupation I would choose, but God has risen a desire in me to learn as much as I can in this season.

We bought some pigs last September and were donated a hen as well. We will be doing aquaponics and other farming methods.

The future, the promises of God are before us, and we will be patient and steadfast to see these come to pass. In the meantime, we will be busy traveling the mountain-side serving God and sharing the kingdom of heaven to whomever will listen.

We thank you for your prayers and support, for your partnership as brothers and sisters in Christ! God bless you in all that you do!
