

What a time!!!!

October 2013

God has not stopped creating new and big opportunities.

We are proceeding with our growing church group in Avellino and with Seek and Save ministry works. I encourage you to take a look at our website www.ssministry.org so you can know more about the things we do in our local town.

Revival and Supernatural

We have introduced a new area in our Media ministry. This is how the program is structured: Seek and Save Ministry Media LLC will interview people with major testimonies, men and women of God who walk in the supernatural and in revival. The program will be broadcast in Italy through major TV programs such as TBN-Italy and other local Christian TV stations. If you want to know more about this, please contact me at cirosaggese@gmail.com - we have also set a web page for people to register for the programs and be scheduled to be interviewed, you can see it here: <http://revivalandsupernatural.ssministry.org/>.

So far we have had 5 contacts from people who want to be video interviewed and broadcast on TV. Some of them have incredible testimonies. and we want one day to translate them into English and Spanish to bless many countries, and not only Italy. The interviewing process will require either that I travel all over Italy to go make the interviews, or that they travel to me to be interviewed. I would prefer to have a studio in which I can interview people with all the setting that is necessary, because traveling in this country is very expensive (the regular gas price is now at about 9 Dollars per gallon!).

Please pray for us, and support this project so that we can really start to function in a manner that is worth of GOD. It's a time where we must say "enough" to all that is not God like, and think seriously to reach as many people as we can with the love of GOD.

BENNY HINN???? Unbelievable!!!!

The other day I was at the Seek and Save Mission office, down town Avellino. While I was there picking up some food from the food bank to take to a family that is in major need, I got a phone call. "Benny Hinn will be in Rome, November 8-9. I am calling you to know if you would like to translate for him." I said "yes"! I ask you to pray, we expect about 4000 people to gather. I am honored that I will be able to do this, since serving God is always a joy for me.

TBN-Italy

All right, I need a lot of wisdom. October 22, on my son's birthday, I am scheduled to go to Milan to meet with the TBN leadership. They will also interview me and broadcast it. Apparently, they want to offer me the opportunity of working with them. I understand that they would send me to the States two or three times a year for TBN ministry purpose. Please pray for wisdom. I want to do what God tells me. It's a tough thing, and I do not want to take it too lightly.... I count on your prayers...and.....

I also count on your support.

I want to share that since God has been opening the doors, the income is being reduced. I live by faith! I am leading a family of 5, and a ministry group all by faith. I know right now God wants to see if I stay faithful to HIS call, and so He is allowing some financial strife. The last couple of months. we have had the smallest income of the last years. I want to stir the hearts of those who feel compelled by God to support us, please know that without you this ministry cannot continue growing. I do not trust man, I trust God, but it has pleased God to give His Son, and in His kingdom it's all about giving, for the increasing of HIS GLORY ON EARTH, in a time where many weird things are happening to dismay true Christians, and to poison them. We need to stand up! I am ready! Are you coming with me?
